Australian Military History

The Vietnam Years

This is the story of the Vietnam War, a chronological military history. What hasn't been told so far is what really happened on patrols: how men fought, died and came back damaged in some way. It also tells the story of those who stayed at home - the Army wives who had to cope then and now, and the wave of political protest at home. $24.99

An Awkward Truth: The Bombing of Darwin, February 1942

Darwin was a battle Australia would rather forget. Yet the Japanese attack was the first wartime assault on Australian soil. The Japanese struck with the same carrier-borne force that devastated Pearl Harbor only ten weeks earlier. More bombs fell on Darwin, more civilians were killed, and more ships were sunk. $32.95
